Online Signup

fact

Fully 3/4 of all paper signup forms have to be returned to the customer due to illegible, incorrect, or missing data.

fact

5-10% of the time an account is created from paper, the transcriber introduces errors into the account data.

Accio Data responded by developing our Signup Now™ technology. Combined with the Validate Now™ technology we invented for customer ordering, forms with missing data, four digit zip codes, and other errors are a thing of the past. And since the technology is fully integrated into the screening platform, no transcriber is necessary.

Live Order Validation

Many systems validate orders by sending the completed form to the server. If there are errors, one or more error messages are returned to the customer. Customers complained that this was a tedious, time consuming process and we couldn't agree more!

Our response? Invent Validate Now™. With Validate Now™, customers receive real-time feedback as they enter data. Missing fields are highlighted on the screen. 8 digit socials? No more, Validate Now™ highlights the field. The customer is rewarded when he completes the form with a Big Green Go Button.

Self Administration

Every customer is supplied with an administrative account. From this account, they can create individual user accounts and configure them however they want. And that means less calls to your customer service department!

Managed Servers Included

Free with our service, we will host your screening platform at our state of the art facility. We will mirror your data to a back-up facility in real time and you will use our state of the art 64 bit server farm (an industry first!)

You can go from square 1 to having your own customized employment screening platform in just a few days.

Pricing

Please visit our website for entry-level pricing, or call us for volume discounts. Generally, we require no minimum contract term, assess no signup fees, and have low monthly minimums.
